S.B. Civil Misc. Appeal No.896/2005

Mst Lad Devi vs. Farman Ali and others.

Date : 9.8.2005

HON'BLE MR. PRAKASH TATIA, J.

Mr. RS Chundawat, for the appellant.

- - - - -

Heard.

The appellant is aggrieved against the award dated 16.5.2005 by which Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Bhilwara awarded compensation of Rs.50,000/- to the claimant/appellant against his claim of Rs.4,51,000/- in claim case no.711/2004 on account of the injuries which he suffered in the accident.

According to learned counsel for the appellant, the compensation awarded to the claimant is too low.

I have considered the submissions of learned counsel for the appellant.

It is not in dispute that in the accident, the appellant suffered total four injuries out of which only one was grievous and that too was on leg. The appellant produced medical bills amounting to Rs.3,228/- which was allowed by the Tribunal. The claimant remained in hospital for four days only. The Tribunal awarded Rs.10,000/- on account of his expenditure on special diet etc. and for the major injury, the compensation of Rs.40,000/- has been awarded taking into account 25% permanent disablement in the leg.

I do not find any ground to challenge such a determination for assessment of the compensation by the Tribunal.

Accordingly, this appeal, having no merit, is hereby dismissed.
